SMALL TALK

Tricia Helfer first got our attention on the acclaimed series Battlestar Galactica and is once again dominating the small screen in TNT's police drama Dark Blue. The Canada native, who now calls LA home, lets us in on some of what makes her tick.

I love it when...I get to have a lovely weekend at home with my hubby.

I hate it when...people treat animals as insignificant beings.

My favorite thing about LA is...being in the middle of the city but also being five minutes from a great hike.

I absolutely have to TiVo...South Park*.

I never leave the house without...Rosebud Perfume Company lip balm.

If I weren't an actress, I'd be...a psychologist.

I couldn't live without...physical exercise.

I'm most proud of...my family and the strong work ethic that they instilled in me.

If I could go anywhere in the world, I'd go...on an African safari.

I wish I could...get to a point in my career where I don't have to audition.

Aside from acting, I'm most passionate about...animals and animal welfare.
